Get Along!

*Get along! Get along!
Come on now everybody... Get along!
It's not so hard to love each other
Love your sisters and your brothers
Hey come on now everybody... Get along!*

No it's not that hard to do if you'll remember
That "The Golden Rule" applies to every game
Don't get caught in life's delusion
In a mess of mass confusion
Thinking we're all different
'Cause we're more the same

*Get along! Get along!
Come on now everybody... Get along!
It's not so hard to love each other
Love your sisters and your brothers
Hey come on now everybody... Get along!*

Well it's not that long ago when we were children
Before we all valued money power and fame
All that mattered was one's goodness
Grown-ups seldom understood us
But the world is ours now
And it's time to change

*Get along! Get along!
Come on now everybody... Get along!
It's not so hard to love each other
Love your sisters and your brothers
Hey come on now everybody... Get along!*
